these are some of the fotos which i took from the office on the 23rd floor. taken on the 14th of may. this was when things were really bad. as you can see many smokes in the far end, this is the kota area where looting was bad. this is where i went to get some glodok fotos..of course after...

This is in front of the Glodok mall area. The hotel in front has been burnt to crusts and now vacant. I do not know how many people have died in this incident or how many were saved.

This was taken from front of the Glodok mall. I think you may remember this one. Sorry that i do not have the foto before it was burned.

This was taken from an 45 degree angle to the foto No.4. Actually left of No.4 foto.

This was taken from inside of the mall area. Workers are there in front of the shop trying to restore but they seemed to be doing nothing also....

This was once the famous CD store in Jakarta where it holds many imported and many kinds of CDs. Now this is all gone. Taken from outside of the entrance.

Another shopping mall famous amongst local people and just before the Taman Angrek mall.

This is taken from the inside of the Glodok mall. As you see in the far end, this is the front of the mall where you can see in foto No.4.
